FAQ's

1. Who does Travel Insurance cover?

Anyone between the ages of 2 and 75 and depending on the coverage purchased, up to 6 individuals can be covered under the Family Travel Policy.
2. How long does travel insurance coverage last?

Annual Travel Insurance policy will cover any number of trips in a single year. However any one trip within that year cannot exceed 30 days. Short Term Travel Insurance policy will cover up to a maximum of 14 travel days in total per year.
3. How often are premiums charged for travel insurance?

Premiums for Annual and Short Term Travel Insurance are paid at the time of purchase and it is a one-time payment, For Annual Travel Insurance; your policy will automatically be renewed provided the premium is paid within 30 days of the expiry of your previous policy. Short Term Travel Insurance, the policy is not renewable after the 14 day coverage. However, you may purchase another Short Term Travel policy for additional trips.
4. Can I cancel this insurance at any time?

Yes, you can cancel the Travel Insurance policy within 14 days of the effective date and receive a full premium refund provided you or any of the family members covered under the policy have not travelled outside of Bermuda during this period. If you cancel after the first 14 days or if you or any of the family members covered under the policy have travelled outside of Bermuda within those 14 days, no premium refund can be made.
5. Are there any cities or countries excluded from my Travel Insurance policy?

Countries are not specifically excluded; however countries experiencing civil unrest, riots or wars are not covered. You can contact BF&M for more information.
6. Am I or anyone else under my policy covered for hazardous sports or activities?

You have the option to purchase additional Adventure Travel Insurance coverage if you will be participating in sports and outdoor activities overseas. This is an additional coverage at an additional cost if you plan to ski, snowboard, skin dive or scuba dive.

7. What happens if my money or items that I've purchased are lost or stolen?

The policy provides coverage for money lost or stolen subject to a limit of $150 for HSBC Personal Banking clients, and $250 for HSBC Advance and HSBC Premier clients. For items purchased during your trip you're covered based on proposition and insurance policy purchased.

8. Will I be able to make a claim if I miss my flight?

The Travel Insurance policies provide coverage for flight cancellation or curtailment as a result of illness, death or injury of any of the insured. Additionally, if a close relative or business associate of the insured dies, you will be covered for your missed flight. The airline ticket must be non-refundable or credit has not been received due to cancellation or curtailment.

9. Do travelers have to be related to qualify for the Family Travel coverage?

Yes, the Family Travel Plan applies to families residing in the same household. Family is defined as two parents or a single parent and up to 4 children, including step and foster children, between the ages 2 and 21 years who normally reside in the same residence or up to 25 years of age if attending, on a full time basis, an accredited academic or vocational institution.

10. How do I make a claim?

All claims should be submitted to the BF&M. BF&M has a 24 hour 7 days a week Travel Assist hotline which offers support and assistance. Please have your policy number ready for reference or keep it in a safe place when travelling.
